TAX STRATEGIES NEEDED IN A DOWN ECONOMY

February 12, 2009

Presented By
ART BOSCARINO

Sponsored By

Join the Blue Ridge Association of REALTORS® for a catered lunch and seminar from 11:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. on February 12, 2009 at our Blue Ridge office, 181 Garber Lane in Winchester, VA.

Art Boscarino, the Director of the Academy of Continuing Education, Inc. and author of "Tax Strategies For The Next Millennium" will show you how to:

- Run your business as a Tax Shelter
- Greatly reduce the Social Security and Medicare taxes you are now paying
- Take advantage of the limited window of opportunity opened by the Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001
- Have your business pay all of your health insurance and medical expenses even after you retire
- Have the IRS pay for most of your children's education
- Evaluate the different forms of business entities you can operate your business under
- Have real estate investments, mortgages and properties owned in your self-directed 401(k) plan

"Since implementing the tax strategies discussed in the seminar, I have been averaging $23,000 annually in tax savings for the first 5 years."
